Jim Booros is a member of the PGA of America since 1983, Booros also played on the PGA Tour for nine years between 1977 and 1991. During that time he competed in 265 events, including four US Opens and one PGA Championship.

He recorded eleven top ten finishes and made the all-exempt top 125 money list five times. In 1989 Booros capped his career off by beating Mike Donald in a four hole sudden death playoff to win the Deposit Guaranty Golf Classic in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

In his professional career, Booros also played on the Asian Tour, the Hogan Tour, the Nationwide Tour and the Philadelphia Section Tour. He competed in six PGA National Club Pro events and four PGA Senior Club Pro events. Jim has won the Philadelphia Section Championship, the Philadelphia Open, the Pennsylvania PGA, the Whitford Championship, and over 100 Pocono Pro-Am events.

Locally, Booros served as the Director of Golf at the Allentown Municipal Golf Course and the Whitetail Golf Club. He has been a long time instructor at the Southmore Golf Club as a part of the Jim Muschlitz Golf Academy.
